

The Belz-Lipman Award

for Excellence in Holocaust Education

Applications Live!

Submissions close January 1st, 2021

Established by Memphis community leaders, entrepreneurs, and philanthropists Jack A. Belz and Ira Lipman the Belz-Lipman Award for Excellence in Holocaust Education Award recognizes outstanding talent and commitment in the field of Holocaust education. The Tennessee Holocaust Commission has presented the award since 1993, recognizing the most skilled, dedicated, and enduring Holocaust educators across the state of Tennessee for nearly thirty years.

Each year three educators are chosen for the award and accompanying $1500 grant, which can be used for professional development and support. Examples include the development of new curriculum, to purchase resources or attend trainings in Holocaust history or education. Of the three recipients, one each will be chosen from East, West and Middle Tennessee, respectively. Distinguished recipients of the award have attended international conferences on Holocaust education, served as Teacher Fellows with the Tennessee Holocaust Commission and the United States Holocaust Memorial Museum.

Recipients receive:

- A $1500 grant for their classroom.
- State-wide recognition.
- Exclusive access to Tennessee Holocaust Commission events and workshops.

The award is open to teachers in the state of Tennessee with at least two years of experience teaching the Holocaust in the classroom.

The winners of the Belz-Lipman Holocaust Educator Award are announced in the House Chambers of the State Capitol, as part of The Tennessee Holocaust Commission's Annual Day of Remembrance Holocaust Commemoration. The commemoration is free and open to the public.

Teachers should apply by completing the below application.

To nominate an educator in your community, please email tnholcom@tnholcom.org with their name, contact information, and whether or not you would like the nomination to be anonymous.
