The Tennessee Holocaust Commission is proud to partner with these organizations this spring to bring Holocaust Education across Tennessee:

The image displays a collection of logos for partner organizations. The logos are arranged in several rows. The first row includes Jackson Christian (Established 1976) and a red diamond-shaped logo with 'RCS'. The second row features Middle Tennessee State University (Holocaust Studies Program), Discovery Park of America (See beyond.), and Illinois Holocaust Museum Presents Experience 360. The third row shows Jewish Federation of Greater Chattanooga, Jewish Community Partners, and Northeast State International Education. The fourth row contains Jewish Federation of Greater Nashville, Knoxville Jewish Alliance, and Mississippi State Community College. The fifth row includes The Temple, Tellico Plains Public Library, White House Library, and Roane State Community College. The final row consists of Tusculum University, The Carnegie Center, and AMSE (American Museum of Science & Energy).
